

The Governor's Division of Emergency Management is offering:

G362 – MULTI-HAZARDS EMERGENCY PLANNING FOR SCHOOLS

When & Where: February 28-29, 2008
Education Service Center Region 12
2101 W. Loop 340
Waco, TX 76712

Cost: There is no cost to attend GDEM sponsored courses
(see DEM Training Calendar for Travel Reimbursement)

Course Length: Sixteen Hours (16)

Target Audience: School district personnel and representatives of agencies and organizations that are responsible for developing plans for schools to prepare for and respond to emergencies, and emergency management personnel who require a basic understanding of emergency planning for schools to assist in the process.

Description: This course is designed to help participants recognize the need to plan for all types of disasters. Since planning is a process, planning is included in every unit and activity. Participants completing the course will be able to explain the importance of a school safety program to others and to lead individuals in their schools and community through the process of developing an effective multi-hazard program.
