

Leadership liaisons provide professional development expert assistance and support to campus and central office administrators. Professional development offered as part of the co-op is determined by our annual needs assessment, current trends, and state priorities.

Campus Leadership Collaboration Conference New!

We invite you to join us for our first Leadership Collaboration Conference for the opportunity to learn and share with other campus leaders! The conference will kick off with a keynote session, Prepare for Impact, by Sharon Davis. The day will then offer breakout sessions such as PEIMS, Special Education, EL, STAAR Redesign, Classroom Management, Social & Emotional Learning, and School Improvement/grant information. Don't miss this opportunity to collaborate and gain valuable information in one day!

Principal Academy

In this series, principals will focus on the principalship as it builds throughout the year. Through networking, dialogue, and scenario-rich instruction, we will equip new principals with the necessary skills of time management, teacher appraisal, and instructional leadership. Additional topics embedded within the above areas of focus are change management and how to leverage human capital to build sustainable systems within your organization.

These sessions are appropriate for both the new and veteran principal as differentiation within sessions will be provided. Participants will have opportunities to work in mixed groups as well as through breakout sessions to focus on individual learning needs.

Session #245968
- 2 Fall: Sept. 14 & Oct. 20
- 2 Spring: Feb. 16 & Apr. 20

Assistant Principals Academy Session

There is more to the job than managing discipline! Assistant principals have a multi-dimensional role on campuses. When leveraged with intention, the assistant principal can provide crucial support for teachers and students. These sessions focus on strategies to help the assistant principal respond to the unique needs of the campus, its teachers, and students through results-driven practices. Assistant principals will use this learning to determine next steps to proactively influence the current state of conditions, overcome campus challenges, and support a positive learning culture for all.

These sessions are appropriate for both the new and veteran assistant principal as differentiation within sessions will be provided. Participants will have opportunities to work in mixed groups as well as through breakout sessions to focus on individual learning needs.
